

MAKE YOUR OWN WISHING JAR

There was once an old woman who lived in an old vinegar bottle. This particular vinegar bottle was bigger than most, but it still made for a rather squashed home.

Fortunately for her, there's a sympathetic fairy nearby ready to grant her a wish...

Join Story Builder Marian for a lively retelling of the traditional folktale The Old Lady Who Lived in a Vinegar Bottle.

Watch on our YouTube channel or visit discover.org.uk/storytelling-resources

Then, have a go at making a wishing jar to store your own wishes...

TO GET STARTED, YOU WILL NEED:

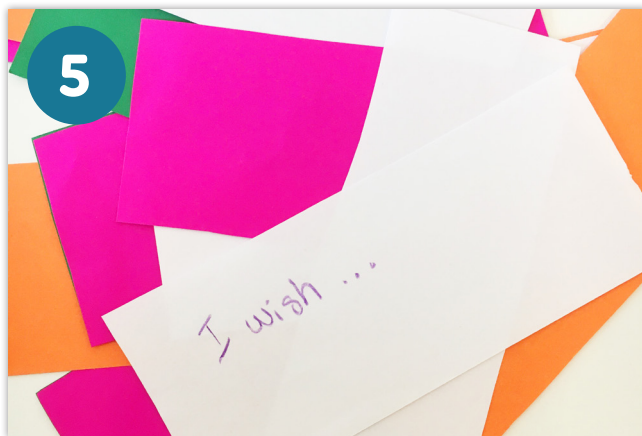

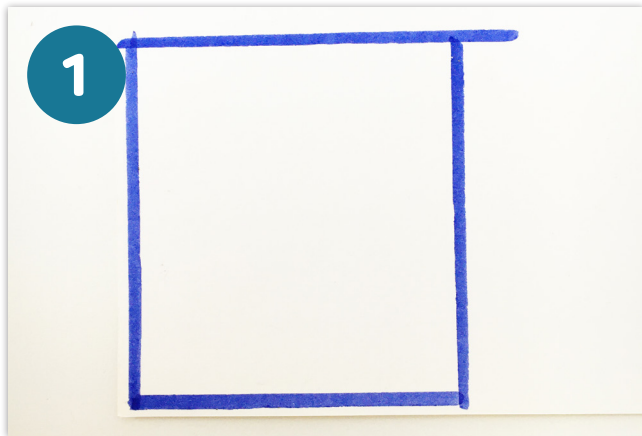

An empty jar

Card or paper

A piece of string

Colouring pens and pencils

Scissors

INSTRUCTIONS:

1. On a white piece of card of paper, draw a rectangular shape (about 5cmx6cm).
2. Decorate the inside of the rectangle as you wish to create a label for your jar.
- 3-4. Cut out the label and ask a grown up to help you attach it to the jar with string.
- 5-6. Write down your wishes, fold them up and collect them in your wishing jar, ready for any fairies that might pass by... (learn all about wish granting fairies in The Old Lady Who Lived in a Vinegar Bottle.)

I wish.....

.....

.....

.....

I wish.....

.....

.....

.....

I wish.....

.....

.....

.....

I wish.....

.....

.....

.....

I wish.....

.....

.....

.....

I wish.....

.....

.....

.....

